

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Before this legislation, the phone rang constantly, to the point I considered removing it. They call late in the evening. They call on Sunday mornings.
Please do let them start again.